

Benoît Dantec appointed Executive Vice-President, Commercial Property, Bouygues Immobilier

Issy-les-Moulineaux, XX July 2013

Benoît Dantec has been appointed Executive Vice-President, Commercial Property at Bouygues Immobilier. His job will be to grow the company's property development business in the retail sector, which has been strategically designated as a new source of growth. Specifically, he will lay the groundwork for Bouygues Immobilier to round out its existing offering in mixed-use projects (combining shops, offices and housing) and in exclusively retail projects, as opportunities arise.

Benoît Dantec will sit on the executive committee of the Commercial property, International, R&D and Retail sector division. He will report directly to Eric Mazoyer, Deputy CEO of Bouygues Immobilier.

Benoît Dantec, aged 47, who holds an LLM and MBA in international food trade, has worked in the commercial property sector for more than 23 years. He has held executive positions at Unibail and Carrefour and, since 2001, has been CEO of Vastned Management France, the French subsidiary of a Dutch institutional investor specialising in retail properties.
